1 Circulation Desk
Borrow materials; register ID for off-campus access to resources; get course reserves, closed shelves, and multimedia materials; send faxes; and much more.

2 Information Desk
Ask questions, get research assistance.

3 Recreational Reading
New Books, Paperbacks, READ collection, and casual furniture for relaxing.

4 Reference Collection
The place to start research for all subjects: dictionaries, encyclopedias, almanacs, atlases, statistical sources, bibliographies. These books are for use only in the library, so they are always available.

5 DVDs
One of the most popular collections – classic movies and current hits, TV shows, documentaries, and more.

6 Computer Graphics Workstation
Students can create and edit graphics and multi-media projects using Adobe Creative Suite 6 software.

7 Current Periodicals
Browse the newest issues of local & national newspapers and magazines and journals on all subjects. Now with a larger seating area.

8 Library Classroom
Where librarians teach research techniques and information literacy.

9 Computers & Printers
Largest collection of computers on campus. The library’s computers are connected to pay-for-print stations. Scanners are also available on the Main and Lower Levels.

10 General Book Collection
Books that can be borrowed. Books with call numbers beginning with A - G are here, H - Z are downstairs.

11 Hawaiian Collection
Materials related to Hawai‘i, including books, journals, maps, and more, along with reference assistance.
12 Periodical Backfiles
Back issues of print journals, alphabetical by title.

13 Student Media Production Room
Create and practice a presentation with Adobe Creative Suite 6 software and an overhead projection system. Scanner also available.

14 Government Documents
Selected, limited federal government publications. More available at: https://www.govinfo.gov

15 Maps
U.S. and World maps – most can be borrowed. Hawaiʻi maps are in the Hawaiian Collection on the Main Level.

16 General Book Collection
Books that can be borrowed. Books with call numbers beginning with H – Z are here, A – G are upstairs on the Main Level.

17 Kilohana Academic Success Center
Tutoring, workshops, seminars, placement testing, Writing Center.